

Checklist for Review and Approval of Eagle Scout Service Projects

Step	Description	Approval
1	Scout presents the concept for the Eagle Service Project to the Troop Committee Chairman Contact Mike Miskin: (mobile) 501-912-3851 or mike.miskin@molex.com If approved, Mike Miskin will sign as Unit Leader (page 8 of Project Workbook) Scout proceeds with a meeting with the Group Benefiting from the Project If not approved, Scout must present revised or new concept to the Troop Committee Chairman
2	Scout presents the project concept to the Group Benefiting from the project Contact a representative of the group benefiting from the project Representative will sign on page 8 of Project Workbook Scout proceeds with the planning and completion of the Project Plan
3	Scout presents Final Draft of the Service Project Plan to the Scoutmaster Contact Phil Sampson: (mobile) 501-804-4603 or Phil.Sampson@Alltel.com If approved, Phil Sampson will sign as Scoutmaster (page 10 of Project Workbook) Scout proceeds with a meeting with the Group Benefiting from the Project If not approved, Scout must present revised Final Draft to the Scoutmaster
4	Scout presents the Service Project Plan to the Group Benefiting from the project Contact a representative of the group benefiting from the project Representative will sign on page 10 of Project Workbook Scout proceeds with a meeting with the Troop Committee
5	Scout presents the Service Project Plan to the Troop Committee Contact Mike Miskin: (mobile) 501-912-3851 or mike.miskin@molex.com If approved, Mike Miskin will sign as Committee Chairman (page 10 of project workbook) Scout proceeds with a phone call to the District Representative If not approved, Scout must present revised Workbook to the Troop Committee
6	Scout places phone call to the District Representative for approval to begin the Service Project District Representative: Randy Lutten (mobile) 501-944-7575 (home) 501-312-7635 e-mail: gizmo9@Flash.net Scout will need to be prepared to discuss: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. How did you pick the project? 2. What are you proposing to do for the project? 3. How will you demonstrate leadership during this project? 4. What scout skills are being put to use on this project? If approved, Scout writes the date and time of the phone call into the Workbook under District Representatives signature line and proceeds with the Service project If not approved, Scout must address concerns and set up another phone call
NOTE	Scout may only proceed with the Service Project after all approvals are obtained on pages 8 and 10 of the Service Project Workbook.
7	Scout leads the Service Project and completes the Service Project Workbook
8	Scout presents completed Service Project Workbook to the Scoutmaster Contact Phil Sampson: (mobile) 501-804-4603 or Phil.Sampson@Alltel.com If approved, Phil Sampson will sign as Scoutmaster (page 14 of Project Workbook) Scout proceeds with a meeting with the Group Benefiting from the Project If not approved, Scout must present revised Service Project Workbook to the Scoutmaster
9	Scout presents completed Service Project Workbook to the Group Benefiting from the project Contact a representative of the group benefiting from the project Representative will sign on page 14 of Project Workbook	